Community Members Invited to Plan the Future of Tualatin at Issues Workshops

What do we want Tualatin to be like in 20 years? How do we want to get there? Community members will explore these questions for specific aspects of community life in Tualatin Tomorrow issues-based workshops this summer.

Community members are invited to sign up for the following workshops, which will be held at various Tualatin locations from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.:

Parks, Recreation and Natural Areas, Tuesday, June 27, Tualatin United Methodist Church, Koch Hall, 20200 SW Martinazzi Avenue

Health, Safety and Social Services, Thursday, July 13, Legacy Meridian Park Hospital, Educational Wing Meeting Room 117A, 19300 SW 65th Avenue

Growth, Housing and Town Center, Tuesday, July 18, Tualatin Heritage Center, 8700 SW Sweek Drive

Traffic, Transportation and Connectivity, Wednesday, July 26, Tualatin High School, Commons Area, 22300 SW Boones Ferry Road

Governance, Leadership and Community Engagement, Thursday, August 3, Tualatin
Durham Senior Center, 8515 SW Tualatin Road

Arts, Culture, Education, Youth and Family Activities, Thursday, August 17, Tualatin
Heritage Center, 8700 SW Sweek Drive

To sign up, contact Doug Zenn at 503-256-7222 or dzenn@zennassociates.com or Elizabeth Stepp at 503-691-3028 or estepp@ci.tualatin.or.us.

Sponsored by the City of Tualatin, the Tualatin Tomorrow visioning process will develop two documents to guide Tualatin's future to the year 2030. The first is a vision statement, which will express where the community wants to be in the future. The other is a detailed, strategic action plan, which will include projects and identify partners to achieve the vision.
